

Call for Speakers Notice of Intent to Award (NOIA)

Proposal Evaluation and Selection Information:

ELC electronically noticed 38 speakers and 3 speaker bureaus and posted its Call for Presenters on its website on October 11, 2023. ELC received 20 timely proposals on or before the publicly noticed deadline (October 27, 2023, 12:00 p.m.) and assigned them to an evaluation team (Eval Team) who evaluated each proposal using the same criteria (scoring rubric).

Each proposal received scores from three Eval Team members. After they completed their scoring, ELC summed and averaged the scores, grouped them by Presentation Type (Break-out Session, Motivational Speaker, and Keynote Speaker) and ranked all proposals by their average scores in descending order (highest to lowest). To maximize available funding, ELC sorted any tie-scores in ascending speaker price quote order (lowest to highest).

A Notice of Intent to Award (NOIA) will be sent to the Proposers with the highest-ranking Motivational and Keynote proposals. All Breakout Session proposals with average scores of 80 or higher have also been selected – ELC reserves the right to invite additional speakers in this group who have a minimum score of 70 or higher.

If a Proposer declines their Notice of an Intent to Award (NOIA) or an Agreement cannot be reached during negotiations, ELC may opt to offer a NOIA to the next highest-scoring Proposer in the same grouping until one accepts the award.
